If your mobile number is not updated with the Bank, purchase limits on the Debit Card would be reduced to Zero and ATM withdrawal limits would be restricted to INR 25,000. Under Liberalized Remittance Scheme (LRS), Valid PAN is mandatory for all international remittances. If valid PAN is not provided to the Bank, then international remittances on your Debit Card will be disabled. Section 206C(1G) of Income-tax Act, 1961 deals with the applicable Tax at Source (TCS) rates on international remittances under LRS. No Tax at Source (TCS) is applicable on any international remittance/s under LRS, if such remittance/s is/are less than INR 7 lakh in a financial year (FY). Where international remittance/s under LRS (other than medical treatment and overseas education) exceeds INR 7 lakh in a FY then TCS would be applicable @ 20%. TCS @ 0.5% will be applicable in case of remittance/s towards overseas education being made out of loan obtained from a financial institution, exceeding INR 7 lakh in a FY. TCS will be applicable @ 5% on remittance/s for overseas education which is not financed by loan from a financial institution or, for medical treatment, exceeding INR 7 lakh in a FY.
